Choudhary Foundation is dedicated to empowering resource-poor women through dignified livelihood opportunities. Established in 2017, it envisions a world where all women, especially those from underprivileged backgrounds, enjoy full citizenship, economic independence, and decision-making power. The foundation provides skill training in diverse fields, promotes economic empowerment, and fosters an inclusive, supportive community environment. It also engages in advocacy, awareness programs, and community development initiatives to drive meaningful change.

October month brings festive vibes with vibrant celebrations, sparkling lights, and joyous gatherings. It's a month filled with cultural traditions, lively decorations, and a sense of togetherness.

The month started with Navratri & Durga Puja festival, the festival mark the "Divine Nari Shakti". Our girls got the opportunity to perform at the Raksha Garbha & Durga Puja Mahautsav at Dwarka Sector-10. Their performance rock the stage, it was indeed the best show in the function so far. All the center girls enjoyed the atmosphere

During the Dusshera celebration, our Ngo work was accolade at the Ramlila Mahautsav stage at Dwarka sector-3, by the local area councilor Mrs. Sushma Rathi & Mr. Pawan Rathi Ji.

During Karvachauth festival, our girls got the opportunity to show their excellence of Mehendi Design at the fest held at R.D.Rajpal School, Dwarka Sector – 10, in premises of Eden Towers Sector-5 and at Senco Jewellers in Dwarka Sector -14. We are proud that many of the girls have made a good pocket and got the confidence to showcase their talent at professional stage.

The Trust, get the opportunity to showcase the products at the Diwali celebration in PNB Headoffice in Dwarka.

At our Rajapuri center, on the eve of Diwali our girls shows their talent by designing beautiful rangoli designs. The vibrant colour & spark of diwali will always remain illuminated in the life of these girls

Free Health Checkup camp was organized at the Jai Mata Di Clinic in Dholi Village, Muzffarpur District, Bihar where more than 250 + people of nearby villages get the free testing facilities & diagnosis on the 27.10.24
